In the Dragonfly bubble at school we have been learning about Henry VIII, here are some activities if you would like to learn about him at home.

Look at portrait of Henry VIII as a young King from The National Portrait Gallery (There is a copy of it below)

<https://www.npg.org.uk/col-lections/search/portrait/mw03081/King-Henry-VIII?LinkID=mp02145&search=sas&sText=henry+VIII&role=sit&rNo=0>

Portraits were very important as there were no photos so this is how we know now what Henry looked like. He would have planned his portrait very carefully.

What do you notice? Think of 5 words to describe him.

Write as if you are Henry VIII. What would you want future generations to think of you at this point in your life?

Listen to the BBC Bitesize clip about Henry VIII

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/teach/school-radio/history-henry-viii/zjd4382>

Would you like to do this job?

What do you learn about Henry VIII?

Henry VIII is remembered for having 6 wives. Look at the power point to find out more information about his wives.

This horrible history song will help you remember all their names and what happened to them.

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=CRiF\_kIJFC0

Using what you know about Henry and his wives can you design and make an advert for a new wife for him?

You can use the format on the website or design your own.

It would be great to see some finished adverts and share them with the dragonflies who are at school!

Can you successfully be a spy at Hampton Court Palace now you have started to learn about the Tudors?

Play this game to find out!
